

METHODODOLOGY OF LABOUR RESEARCH

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Answer any FIVE questions.

(5 × 20 = 100)

1. Explain the nature, features and uses of scientific methods of research.
2. Illustrate the steps involved in testing of hypothesis.
3. Briefly explain the types of probability sampling method.
4. Give the meaning for case study. List out the advantages and disadvantages of this method.
5. Highlight the uses and limitations of diagrams and graphs in social science research.
6. Explain the following concepts :
  - (a) Null hypothesis
  - (b) Type I and type II errors
  - (c) Standard deviation
  - (d) Standard error
  - (e) Chi-square test.

7. Explain the different types of employment data available in India.
8. How social accounting system of measuring National income is an improvement over other methods?
9. Discuss - 'Census is not only the counting of heads but it gives fund of other valuable information'.
10. What could be the structure and general format for writing a research report?

NATURE OF WORK AND LABOUR PRODUCTIVITY

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Answer any FIVE questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

(5 × 20 = 100)

1. What are the reactions to the human relations theory in the post-war period?
2. Explain your views on class on class work and industrial society.
3. "Division of labour is limited by the extents of market". Discuss.
4. "The changes in technology and work organisations were not in practice so clearly separable" - Discuss.
5. Explain the contributions of F.W. Taylor to improve the understanding of administration and its practice.
6. What are the methods of securing workers participation in management?

7. Exemplify the determinants of productivity.
8. Discuss the basic guidelines for measurement of productivity.
9. Explain the uses of total factor productivity measures.
10. Explain the meaning and aims of profit-sharing.

GLOBAL LABOUR ISSUES

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Answer any FIVE questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

1. Discuss the characteristics of unemployment in developing countries.
2. What are the different types of Migration?
3. Examine the pattern of wage structure in the centrally planned economies.
4. What are the basic measures to improve labour productivity?
5. Examine the growth of trade union activities in both industrial market and centrally planned economies.
6. Examine the scope of collective bargaining in developing countries.
7. Explain the concept ergonomics and its application in developing countries.

8. How to improve the quality of working life in developing countries?
  9. Discuss the role and functions of ILO.
  10. Write notes on any FOUR of the following :
    - (a) Decentralisation
    - (b) Irregular migration
    - (c) The remuneration package
    - (d) Survivor's benefit
    - (e) Wage differentials.
-